Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how iCT4 Limited uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'Privacy Notices' (sometimes called 'Fair Processing Notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

Under the UK's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) personal data is defined as:
 "any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person".

This Privacy Notice explains how we, iCT4 Limited, collect, store and use personal data from our clients.

We, iCT4 Limited with registered address at Trevenson House, Church Road, Pool, Redruth, Cornwall. TR15 3PT are the 'Data Controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our Data Protection Representative (DPR) (see 'Contact us' below) is responsible for ensuring that this notice is made available to data subjects prior to iCT4 Limited collecting / processing their personal data. All employees of iCT4 Limited who interact with data subjects are responsible for ensuring that this notice is drawn to the data subject's attention and their consent to the processing of their data is secured.

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Fulfil a contract we have entered into with you
- Comply with a legal obligation

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify iCT4 Limited's use of your data.

Collecting this information

We collect personal information via phone, post, email and in person. Types of interactions that would gather information includes but not limited to:

- Creating an account as part of the helpdesk signup process
- Apply for services and / or products
- Subscribe to our newsletters
- Part of a tradeshow or promotional event providing your details for future follow up

Data security

We take data security very seriously to ensure your personal data is not lost, used, disclosed, accessed or altered in any unauthorised way. To enable us to provide this security we have implemented the below security measures:

- Customer data is held in multiple databases within the EU and is encrypted at rest and in transmission and only ever accessed over a secure encrypted channel
- Two Factor Authentication (2FA) has been enabled and enforced on all our systems that support this feature. Systems that do not currently support 2FA, we are working with the third parties to encourage them to implement this key feature.
- All company owned mobile devices are encrypted and accessible only via a secure password / pin and set to auto wipe or lockout after a number of incorrect entry attempts.

We have implemented procedures to deal with actual or suspected data breach and will notify you and the ICO where we are legally required to do so.

Data retention

We will only keep your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil contractual, legal and financial obligations along with maintaining your data for services that you have opted to receive such as marketing. We maintain an internal data retention schedule which all staff adhere to.

Data sharing

We may share your personal data with third-party service providers contracted to iCT4 Limited in the course of dealing with you. Any third parties that we may share your data with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the service they are contracted for. When they no longer need your data to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with UK GDPR procedures.

Third parties that we may share your personal data with include prospective companies that we may merge, transfer or sell our company, if this were to happen the data obtained would still be used as set out in this document. Other third parties would include suppliers to allow us to fulfil orders and contracts. The shared data is only permitted to be used for the purposes originally instructed to the third party, the third party is not permitted to use this data for their own purposes.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Suppliers – to meet our contractual requirements to fulfil services, such as offsite backups and internet connectivity provision
- Central government and our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns
